

Weavers' Guild of Boston Core Curriculum (Provisional)
	1 Drafting and Documentat	2 Weave Structures	3 Techniques and Equipment	4 Color Theory and Design	5 Yarns and Fibers
Level 1	111	hand drawdowns	121	plain weave and variations	131	loom types: jack, counterbalanc	141	color wheel - 12 hues	151	fiber overview
	112	weaving math	122	twills		countermarche		color theory		yarns and fibers available
	113	record keeping	123	overshot	132	inkle, card, tablet, rigid heddle looms	142	color and weave		properties, setts etc.
							143	samplers and gamps		grist numbering system
					133	loom parts and their functi	144	what is "original"	152	fiber identification methods
					134	warping techniques front to back back to front				ie burn test
					135	finishing techniques weaving techniques: sett, beat, selvages
					136
Level 2	211	computer weaving software	221	weave structure classification system	231	advanced warping techniques paddles, warping trapeze, warping reels	241	applied color theory	251	linen - in depth
	212	profile drafts	222	lace structures - hand and loom controlled	232	selvages: weighted threads, temples	242	shadow weave	252	cotton - in depth
			223	block weaves and unit weaves	243	repeats	244	checks and plaids	253	mercerized vs unmercerized wool - in depth
			223-1	crackle	233	tie-ups and shaft reduction	245	turned drafts	254	synthetic - in depth
			223-2	Ms and Os			246	combining structures
			224	tied weaves			247	treadling variations
			224-1	summer and winter				including no tabby, on opposites, echo, tromp as writ
			225	embroidery weaves
			225-1	Moorman technique
			225-2	inlay
			226	warp faced weaves
		227	weft faced weaves
Level 3	311	dobby lift plans and tie-ups	321	tapestry	331	sectional warping	341	color perception in textiles	351	combining different fibers
	312	fabric analysis	322	swivel	332	looms: doobby, jacquard drawloom	342	textile design	352	unusual fibers
	313	network drafting	323	lampas	333	supplementary warps
			324	rug weaving
			325	damask and false damask
			326	double weave
